eral hundred acres of land and a number of slaves. He was married to the mother of our subject in 1835. She was the daughter of Joshua and Sarah (Perkins) Moon, the latter lived to be ninety-seven years of age. The results of this union were two children, John W. and Nathaniel J., whose death was caused by falling from a wagon in 1858. The father died May 31, 1839, and his widow afterward married Mr. W. C. Renfroe, of Alabama, and lived until 1870, dying in Texas. The subject of this sketch was reared on a farm in Alabama until 1849, when his mother and stepfather moved to Arkansas, locating in this county. When he was eighteen years of age he commenced working for himself at farm labor, and also by working in a grist and saw mill in Bridge Creek Township. He was married on September 15, 1866, to Elexa Frances Tyson, who was born in Henry County, Tenn., in 1846, a daughter of Uriah and Sarah M. (Lewis) Tyson, natives of Tennessee. The fruits of this union have been nine children, all living, viz.: William Uriah (teaching school and living at home), James N., John R., Sarah A., Samuel E., Mary F., Martha B., Van T. and Clara L. Mr. Moon owns 647 acres of land, of which 220 acres are under cultivation, and devotes his attention chiefly to the cultivation of cotton and corn. He is also engaged in raising horses and cattle. Mrs. Moon is a consistent member of the Missionary Baptist Church. Socially Mr. Moon is a member of the Masonic order, and politically, belongs to the Democratic party. He takes a great interest in politics, and is well known throughout the county, where he is highly respected. Mr. Moon enlisted in June, 1861, in the Third Arkansas Cavalry, in which he served until the close of the war, through which he was color-bearer, and held the rank of third lieutenant. The principal battles in which he participated were: Thompson's Station, Corinth, Iuka, Knoxville, Chickamauga, Atlanta, and others, following Sherman to the sea, cast battle of Johnson's army at Smithville. He was wounded at Thompson's Station in the back of the neck, and returned home November 10, 1865. He was in all of the battles of his brigade, with the exception of the skirmishes. He carried the colors of his regiment through the last three years of the war, and had two flags shot to pieces in his hands, and many narrow escapes.

Henry P. Morgan, a leading merchant of Stephens, is a native of Georgia, born in Harris County, on March 10, 1849, and is one of the prominent business men of the county. His father, John H. Morgan, was born in Alabama in 1810, and died in Poinsett County, Ark., in 1857. He emigrated to the last-named county in 1848, and was one of the very earliest settlers, carrying the first slaves to that county. He located on a farm in the woods, and here passed his last days, filling many local positions of trust. He was married in Georgia to Miss Elizabeth Walker, a native of that State and of Irish descent, her grandparents being natives of the Emerald Isle. She died in 1873. To Mr. and Mrs. Morgan were born ten children, Henry P. being the youngest in order of birth. The latter was reared in Ouachita County, Ark., and received but a limited education. He resided with his mother until twenty-two years of age, and was then married to Miss Georgia Hodnett, a native of Georgia, born in 1852. To them were born three children: Kate M. (wife of Harvey Edwards), Emmett and Marcus. Mrs. Morgan died in 1878, and about 1880 Mr. Morgan took for his second wife Miss Josephine Hodnett, a sister of his first wife and also a native of Georgia. Four children were born to this union: Harvey, Alva, Elma and John H. Mr. Morgan embarked in the merchandising business at Stephens in 1883, and carries a stock of goods valued at about $4,000. He also buys cotton in connection with his general trade. He is the owner of 1,000 acres of land and also several town lots with buildings which he rents. Mr. Morgan is a member of the K. of P. lodge at Stephens, and is also a K. of H. He is a Democrat in politics, and his first presidential vote was for Seymour. He and wife are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of which his first wife was also a member.

Sharon R. Myatt, a prominent farmer of Bridge Creek Township, was born April 5, 1847, in this county, a son of Alfred B. and Jane F. (Elliott) Myatt, natives of North and South Carolina, respectively. Alfred B. Myatt was born in 1811, in Wake County, N. C., of English descent. He was a farmer by occupation, and was reared principally in Alabama, to which State he had removed when he was eleven years of age. At the age of twenty he went to Columbus, Miss., where he went into business, in 1841 he came to this State and located in this county, settling on Government land. He died in 1889, being one of the oldest settlers in this county at the time of his death. The mother was born in 1823, a daughter of Robert Elliott, also an old settler of this county. Mrs. Myatt is still living and resides with her son, the subject of this sketch. She is a member of the Protestant Methodist Church. She was the mother of six children, five of whom are still living, viz.: Rufus (deceased), Melissa (now Mrs. Kennedy, who was born in 1844), Sharon R., Florence Isabella (now Mrs. Hughes,

Dear Brother:

One time when I was at home, Mama told me all these names and dates as I wrote them down. To-day I came across them, and decided to make a copy for you, as I imagine it is the most complete record any of the family have. And it might be useful to some one. It would be well to make a complete record by families. Dont you think so? Love Ruby.

eral hundred acres of land and a number of slaves. He was married to the mother of our subject in 1835. She was the daughter of Joshua and Sarah (Perkins) Moon, the latter lived to be ninety-seven years of age. The results of this union were two children, John W. and Nathaniel J., whose death was caused by falling from a wagon in 1858. The father died May 31, 1839, and his widow afterward married Mr. W. C. Renfroe, of Alabama, and lived until 1870, dying in Texas. The subject of this sketch was reared on a farm in Alabama until 1849, when his mother and stepfather moved to Arkansas, locating in this county. When he was eighteen years of age he commenced working for himself at farm labor, and also by working in a grist and saw mill in Bridge Creek Township. He was married on September 15, 1866, to Elexa Frances Tyson, who was born in Henry County, Tenn., in 1846, a daughter of Uriah and Sarah M. (Lewis) Tyson, natives of Tennessee. The fruits of this union have been nine children, all living, viz.: William Uriah (teaching school and living at home), James N., John R., Sarah A., Samuel E., Mary F., Martha B., Van T. and Clara L. Mr. Moon owns 647 acres of land, of which 220 acres are under cultivation, and devotes his attention chiefly to the cultivation of cotton and corn. He is also engaged in raising horses and cattle. Mrs. Moon is a consistent member of the Missionary Baptist Church. Socially Mr. Moon is a member of the Masonic order, and politically, belongs to the Democratic party. He takes a great interest in politics, and is well known throughout the county, where he is highly respected. Mr. Moon enlisted in June, 1861, in the Third Arkansas Cavalry, in which he served until the close of the war, through which he was color-bearer, and held the rank of third lieutenant. The principal battles in which he participated were: Thompson's Station, Corinth, Iuka, Knoxville, Chickamauga, Atlanta, and others, following Sherman to the sea, east battle of Johnson's army at Smithville. He was wounded at Thompson's Station in the back of the neck, and returned home November 10, 1865. He was in all of the battles of his brigade, with the exception of the skirmishes. He carried the colors of his regiment through the last three years of the war, and had two flags shot to pieces in his hands, and many narrow escapes.

Henry P. Morgan, a leading merchant of Stephens, is a native of Georgia, born in Harris County, on March 10, 1849, and is one of the prominent business men of the county. His father, John H. Morgan, was born in Alabama in 1810, and died in Poinsett County, Ark., in 1857. He emigrated to the last-named county in 1848, and was one of the very earliest settlers, carrying the first slaves to that county. He located on a farm in the woods, and here passed his last days, filling many local positions of trust. He was married in Georgia to Miss Elizabeth Walker, a native of that State and of Irish descent, her grandparents being natives of the Emerald Isle. She died in 1873. To Mr. and Mrs. Morgan were born ten children, Henry P. being the youngest in order of birth. The latter was reared in Ouachita County, Ark., and received but a limited education. He resided with his mother until twenty-two years of age, and was then married to Miss Georgia Hodnett, a native of Georgia, born in 1852. To them were born three children: Kate M. (wife of Harvey Edwards), Emmett and Marcus. Mrs. Morgan died in 1878, and about 1880 Mr. Morgan took for his second wife Miss Josephine Hodnett, a sister of his first wife and also a native of Georgia. Four children were born to this union: Harvey, Alva, Elma and John H. Mr. Morgan embarked in the merchandising business at Stephens in 1883, and carries a stock of goods valued at about $4,000. He also buys cotton in connection with his general trade. He is the owner of 1,000 acres of land and also several town lots with buildings which he rents. Mr. Morgan is a member of the K. of P. lodge at Stephens, and is also a K. of H. He is a Democrat in politics, and his first presidential vote was for Seymour. He and wife are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of which his first wife was also a member.

Sharon R. Myatt, a prominent farmer of Bridge Creek Township, was born April 5, 1847, in this county, a son of Alfred B. and Jane F. (Elliott) Myatt, natives of North and South Carolina, respectively. Alfred B. Myatt was born in 1811, in Wake County, N. C., of English descent. He was a farmer by occupation, and was reared principally in Alabama, to which State he had removed when he was eleven years of age. At the age of twenty he went to Columbus, Miss., where he went into business, in 1841 he came to this State and located in this county, settling on Government land. He died in 1889, being one of the oldest settlers in this county at the time of his death. The mother was born in 1823, a daughter of Robert Elliott, also an old settler of this county. Mrs. Myatt is still living and resides with her son, the subject of this sketch. She is a member of the Protestant Methodist Church. She was the mother of six children, five of whom are still living, viz.: Rufus (deceased), Melissa (now Mrs. Kennedy, who was born in 1844), Sharon R., Florence Isabella (now Mrs. Hughes,

Cemetery Information

What is the fate of Old Seminary Cemetery located about 2 miles north of Stephens, Arkansas at CR 104 & CR 112? All the surrounding land has the timber cut down or razed by heavy equipment. Several headstone were crushed by the equipment.

This old cemetery is overgrown with brush. It is about one acre in size and most of the monuments are in good shape. An African-American cemetery also called Seminary Cemetery, is located on another road about ¼ mile from this one, and it is still active.
Directions: From downtown Stephens, go north on Hwy. 57 for 2.5 miles. Turn left on a gravel road (Rd. 104) and go 9/10ths of a mile to a sharp curve to the right. Two dim roads will leave the gravel road in this sharp curve. The first one (Rd. 112) leads to the black cemetery still in use. The second road is very dim and is about 50 feet from the first one. The cemetery is about 2/10ths of a mile down this dim road and will be on your right. There are large oak trees at the site, and you will have to look closely to see the monuments in the underbrush. Morgan, John H. & family copied from 1895 book

eral hundred acres of land and a number of slaves. He was married to the mother of our subject in 1835. She was the daughter of Joshua and Sarah (Perkins) Moon, the latter lived to be ninety-seven years of age. The results of this union were two children, John W. and Nathaniel J., whose death was caused by falling from a wagon in 1858. The father died May 31, 1839, and his widow afterward married Mr. W. C. Renfroe, of Alabama, and lived until 1870, dying in Texas. The subject of this sketch was reared on a farm in Alabama until 1849, when his mother and stepfather moved to Arkansas, locating in this county. When he was eighteen years of age he commenced working for himself at farm labor, and also by working in a grist and saw mill in Bridge Creek Township. He was married on September 15, 1866, to Elexa Frances Tyson, who was born in Henry County, Tenn., in 1846, a daughter of Uriah and Sarah M. (Lewis) Tyson, natives of Tennessee. The fruits of this union have been nine children, all living, viz.: William Uriah (teaching school and living at home), James N., John R., Sarah A., Samuel E., Mary F., Martha B., Van T. and Clara L. Mr. Moon owns 647 acres of land, of which 220 acres are under cultivation, and devotes his attention chiefly to the cultivation of cotton and corn. He is also engaged in raising horses and cattle.
